

---

---

THE LIBRARY

A number of exceedingly valuable old books on dancing are contained in the Association's Library. The majority of these were bequeathed to the Association by the late Rev. Stewart Headlam. Members may consult these books, but may not remove them from the Association's premises. Application should be made to the Assistant Secretary.

---

---