

Royal Academy of Dance Faculty of Education

Criminal Records Check Policy

1. Purpose of the Policy

The Faculty of Education requires that all potential students who have applied to a place on a programme of study which, as a requirement, brings them into direct contact with children and / or vulnerable adults must complete a satisfactory Criminal Records Check.

2. UK Applicants without an Enhanced DBS Check

For UK applicants this check must be undertaken by the Disclosure and Barring Service. An Enhanced DBS Certificate will be required of all potential students prior to acceptance. In exceptional cases (e.g. where an applicant is accepted late) an applicant may commence the programme before the Disclosure has been issued. However, no applicant will be allowed to commence a programme without first applying for the Enhanced DBS Certificate.

3. UK Applicants in possession of a current Enhanced DBS Check

Where applicants are already holding an Enhanced DBS Certificate applied for by the Royal Academy of Dance, this will be accepted if it has been issued in the year immediately prior to the start of the programme.

4. UK Applicants registered with the DBS Update Service

Where an applicant is registered with the DBS Update Service and provides the Admissions Officer with their Enhanced DBS Certificate number, the Academic Registry will check their DBS status. The original DBS Enhanced certificate must also be submitted to the Academic Registry.

5. UK Applicants who hold a current Disclosure Scotland or Northern Ireland Access check

Students with a current Disclosure Scotland or Access NI check will not have to undergo a DBS check unless they are undertaking a placement in an English school as part of their placement.

6. Non-UK Applicants

Students who are:

- not residing in the UK at the time of application or
- whose programme involves a teaching placement outside the UK

are required to undertake the relevant police check in their country prior to acceptance. The UK Disclosure and Barring Service provides some guidance about checks in different countries and information can be found on their website:

<https://www.gov.uk/disclosure-barring-service-check/overview>

Non-UK applicants will be asked to obtain a Criminal Records Check, or 'Certificate of Good Character', from their country of origin. It may also be possible to obtain such a check through the relevant embassy in the UK. If students are unable to obtain an Enhanced CRB check or similar in their country of residence, they should contact the Academic Registry for advice.

Non-UK applicants who are living in the UK will be required to obtain an Enhanced Disclosure Certificate from the Disclosure and Barring Service.

UK applicants who have lived in another country for more than six months in the last five years will be required to undertake a police check in that country in addition to the Enhanced Disclosure Certificate.

Where an applicant has lived in more than one country for more than six months in the last five years they will be required to undertake a police check in each country.

Prior to their first placement, non-UK applicants (who are now living in the UK but who have never lived in the UK before) will be required to apply for an Enhanced DBS Certificate.

7. Programmes of Study requiring an Enhanced Disclosure Certificate

9. Disclosure

All offers made for programmes of study requiring contact with young people and vulnerable adults will be conditional upon the applicants' Criminal Record Disclosure status. Where a student's Criminal Record Disclosure reveals a conviction, a risk assessment will be made. Depending on the outcome of the risk assessment the student may be required to withdraw from the programme.
