These terms and conditions form the basis of the agreement through which Benesh International at the Royal Academy of Dance (Benesh International) will deliver services to you as a subscriber.

1. Subscription Categories

- 1.1 There are two Benesh International subscription categories: non-professional and professional.
- The Benesh subscription is designed for non-professionals.
 - The Professional Benesh subscription is designed for professionals.

2. Subscription Applications

- 2.1 There are no eligibility requirements for applications to the non-professional subscription category.
- 2.2 Benesh International uses the third party provider Eventbrite to process subscription applications, payments, and to collect your information.

- 2.4 All information that you provide must be true and accurate at the point of applying. In the event of a change of circumstances (e.g. a change of contact details), it is your responsibility to notify us by email or in writing so that our records are up to date.
- 2.5 You will be issued with a unique subscription ID that you should use when communicating with us.
- 2.6 Regardless of who pays for it, a subscription belongs to the individual and not to an organisation/company. Any dispute arising from this must be resolved by the subscriber and their organisation/company.
- 2.7 We reserve the right to reject an application for subscription without disclosing the reason(s) for doing so.

- 3.6 As a subscriber, you will have a 7 calendar day cooling-off period from the date of placing your order in which you have the right to cancel your subscription. We will refund your payment within 21 working days from receipt of cancellation. You must confirm in writing if you wish to cancel your subscription.

- 3.7 Should you wish to cancel your subscription part way through the subscription year, you must confirm in writing. No refund will be given for cancellation of a subscription, other than in relation to clause 3.6.
