Press and Publicity Consent

During Summer School, a photographer will be present some of the time and RAD staff may also take photographs and video recordings. All photographs and video recordings will be the property of the RAD.

Professionally taken photographs will be available for purchase at the end of Summer School and details will be made available at Summer School.

The Royal Academy of Dance (RAD) does not allow photographs, video, audio (sound) recording or any other images of anyone to be taken without their consent, or consent of their parent/guardian.

By submitting the registration form, you will give the RAD your consent to be photographed/filmed by Evan Li and RAD staff during the Summer School. Photographs/videos may be used by the RAD for the following purposes, and we may share them with our partners or sponsors for the same purposes.:

- As promotional material in RAD publications (print and digital)
- On the RAD website and social media channels
- To distribute to press and media outlets to use in their print/digital publications and on their social media channels, as requested.
- In news programmes/press publications for a story/article about Summer School

The RAD will only keep and use the photographs/videos for as long as is appropriate for business purposes (this means, for as long as we need to have access to the images/videos in order to operate as a company). In this instance this means for a period of two years from the date of the course.

You are free to withdraw your consent at any time by sending an email to info@rad.org.nz . You do not need to specify a reason why you are withdrawing consent as well. If you do decide to withdraw your consent at a later time any photographs/videos taken and uploaded will not be used in any future publications or on our websites but may continue to appear in publications (including hardcopy publications) already in circulation or in cache until cleared.

Rest assured that all information you have provided to the RAD is private and confidential; your personal details will not be shared without your full knowledge and your written consent.

Terms and conditions for participating in circus arts – Grades course students only

Grades course participants will take part in a circus arts workshop with The Circus Hub There are some risks associated with circus arts that cannot be eliminated without jeopardizing the essential qualities of the activity. Circus arts may involve a test of a person's physical and mental limits and carries with it the potential for physical injury such as cuts, bruises, sprains, strains, breaks and dislocations.

For this reason, The Circus Hub has developed a comprehensive safety management plan. By submitting the registration form, you agree that you have read and understood the risks involved and the safety management plan.

By submitting the registration form, you agree that, in the case of an injury that requires immediate and urgent medical attention, we may call an ambulance and have the student taken to Wellington Hospital.

Terms and conditions for participating in aquaballet – Grades course students only

Grades course participants will take part in an aquaballet session at the Wellington Regional Aquatic Centre in Kilbirnie. Students will be taken to the Centre by a privately hired bus.

The most serious risks associated with swimming pools include slipping on wet surfaces, drowning and diving into shallow water. These risks will be managed by:

- Having a minimum ratio of 1 supervising adult per 8 students accompanying the group at all times
- Having a qualified life saver present for each group while the students are in the water
- Supporting students to walk slowly and behave calmly at all times
- Prohibiting access to diving boards
- Actively discouraging students from diving from the edge of the pool

Students who are not confident in water, who are not able to swim or who are shorter than 1.2metres, will be provided with a platform to ensure they are able to stand with their head and shoulders above the water level.

By submitting the registration form, you agree that you have read and understood the risks involved.
