Terms and conditions for advertisers

1. Formats for artwork
Please supply online artwork by email, as a JPG file (72ppi/dpi), colour profile RGB. Please supply Dance Gazette artwork by email as a jpg, gif or HTML5 file. Any alterations will be charged at £75 per hour, including one round of amends. If amendments are required, this will be done in consultation with the advertiser. The RAD reserves the right to amend or reject advertisements that do not comply with our artwork guidelines.

2. Rates and refunds
Rates are reviewed annually in April and subject to change from October. Refunds will be based on full payment for advertisements already taken, less a 5% administrative charge. Advertisements cancelled after the booking deadline will be subject to a 50% administrative charge. Charges will still apply for premium positions if an advertisement is cancelled after the booking deadline. Advertisers placing advertisements through agencies will be considered responsible for the payment of any invoice outstanding if the agency does not pay. A 10% agency commission is available. Standard rates do not include VAT, which will be charged at 20%. The RAD reserves the right to review advertising rates.

3. Payment
Invoices will only be issued to advertisers who have been granted credit facilities. Advertisers who have completed a credit facility application form and have obtained credit facilities must settle their invoice within 30 days of invoice date. Payment can be made by cheque in the name of ‘Royal Academy of Dance’, or by bank transfer. Credit accounts which remain outstanding or exceed their credit facility at the time of future advertising will have their credit facilities withdrawn and the RAD reserves the right to withdraw or charge back any preferential discount terms that may have been given at the time of supply. The RAD also reserves the right to charge interest at 1% over base calculated on a daily basis on all overdue accounts.

4. Charity advertising
Under Zero Rate Group 15, Items 8 A, B and C, charities may obtain relief on all types of advertisements on any subject, including staff recruitment, design, production and alterations. The name or logo of the charity does not need to be included for relief to be allowed, but charities are expected to only place advertisements which comply with their charitable objects. Any charity wishing to obtain this relief must complete the Request for Zero Rating Form and provide evidence to the RAD that it is a charity. This evidence is usually provided by an original copy of the charity’s letterhead attached to the form. Failure to provide such evidence will mean that VAT will be added to the cost of the advertisement.

5. EU VAT Registered Traders
Advertisers in the EU may apply for exemption from VAT if they are registered by VAT in their own country. EU VAT Registered Trader exemption may only be given if the advertiser attached a copy of their letterhead to their booking.

Guidelines

1. ADVERTISING WITH THE RAD

1.1 The Royal Academy of Dance aims to attract advertisers to take out advertisements in its publications.

1.2 These guidelines are published for current and potential advertisers so that misleading advertisements or conflicts of interest with the RAD are avoided.

1.3 Advertising in RAD publications does not imply the endorsement of the advertised product or service by the RAD.

1.4 The purpose of these guidelines is to set out criteria governing the acceptance of advertisements appearing in the RAD publications.

1.5 The RAD recognises:

1.5.1 Its responsibility to comply with the rules set by the Committee of Advertising Practice (CAP) and administered by the Advertising Standards Authority (ASA). These state that advertisements should:
   • not be misleading
   • not cause harm or serious or widespread offence
   • take care in featuring children (a child is defined as someone under 16)
   • not infringe on an individual's privacy
   • not influence political choices
   • comply with data protection legislation
   • take account of the Green Claims Code, where applicable
   This standard of care is the minimum acceptable standard.

1.5.2 Its responsibility to its sponsors and licensees and contractual obligations therein.

1.5.3 Its responsibility to the services it provides.

1.5 References to RAD include all branches, subsidiaries and representative offices within the worldwide Group.

1.6 References to Dance Gazette include any other publications published locally as well as country-specific editions.

1.7 The RAD retains the right to refuse advertisements.

2. PRODUCTS AND SERVICES WHICH MAY NOT BE ADVERTISED IN RAD PUBLICATIONS

2.1 General

(a) Advertisements promoting alcohol, tobacco, gambling, lotteries, weight control or slimming aids or other drugs are not acceptable.

(b) Any advertisements in breach of any rule(s) set by the Committee of Advertising Practice (CAP) as specified in 1.5.1 are not acceptable.

2.2 Products

Advertisers who are not Licensees cannot advertise or include in an advertisement the following:

(a) A product or brand (or series of products or brands) which, at the time of publication, is (or are) in direct competition with an RAD Licensed product or brand (e.g. RAD style examination wear); or

(b) Pricing of products; or

(c) The words “wholesale”, “trade”, “exclusive”, “official” or “suitable for RAD examinations”; or

(d) Any of the RAD’s trademarks or logos, when not licensed to do so (see 2.4); or

(e) Negative references to products offered by the RAD.

Advertisers who are Licensees must include the unique logo available to them for Licensed Products on any adverts placed in RAD publications. Advertisers who are not Licensees can advertise if they comply with 2.2 (a) – (e) above, and if they stock Licensed products from one of the Academy’s Licensees they may list the Licensed brands they stock, but no others.

2.3 Services

External advertisers who advertise a service that is in direct competition to a service that the Academy offers, (or a service that may not be comparable but may compete at the same time as a service offered by the RAD) may have their advertisement refused. These may include:

• Degrees, diplomas or certificates similar to that offered by the Faculty of Education, RAD
• Summer schools offered by the Training department, RAD
• Examinations in dance, movement or age-related genre offered or accredited by the Examinations Board, RAD.

2.4 Photography

Advertisements with photography or images of young people and vulnerable adults will only be accepted if the young people and vulnerable are shown in a way that is in accordance with the RAD’s Safeguarding Policy and Procedures and Visual & Social Media Policy.

2.5 Trademarks or logos

ROYAL ACADEMY OF DANCE, RAD, RAD PRE-PRIMARY IN DANCE, RAD PRIMARY IN DANCE and SILVER SWANS are registered trademarks® of the Royal Academy of Dance. RAD INTERMEDIATE FOUNDATION, RAD INTERMEDIATE, RAD ADVANCED FOUNDATION, RAD ADVANCED 1, RAD ADVANCED 2, RAD CLASS AWARD, RAD SOLO PERFORMANCE AWARD, CBTS, KARSAVINA SYLLABUS and DANCE TO YOUR OWN TUNE are unregistered trademarks™ of the Royal Academy of Dance. The use or misuse of the trademarks or any other content of this publication without prior written permission from the Royal Academy of Dance is strictly prohibited. Reproduction in whole or in part, without written permission, is strictly prohibited. The Royal Academy of Dance® is a charity registered in England and Wales no. 312826.
